What part of the vehicle will the President be at St. Louis! Wont he be the whole team, wagon and all? While the encampment will be the dog under the wagon? We heard it said on every hand, that Mr. Funston made the best speech of all that day. There was no sanctimonous looks, nor plous leer. CONGRESSMAN FURSTON'S EXPLOITATION OF THE G. A. R.

The pageant has made its advent and lits park, to take a nip at one of its "diven," and junk at its boards at the expense of the bibulous junketer.

It is a shame and a disgrace for any one to write such a sentence about the people of the town where he lives, and it is equally so for a paper to publisher of the aame about a classof men whose "shoelatches" the writer and the publisher of the above, are not worthy to stoop down and unloose.

The pageant has made its advent explains "Canis Illiner." (We hardly know what this term means, but suppose it is all right, as he is a very learned man.) Now what was this pageant? A few of the men who helped to make this nation what it is to-day, came together with their families, at the invitation of the Grand Army Post at Humboldt to renew acquaintances and talk over old times, when they took their lives in their left and a sension that its pageant and talk over old times, when they took their lives in their left and a sension that its constitution of the Grand Army Post at Humboldt to renew acquaintances and talk over old times, when they took their lives in their left and the propose it is all right, as he is a very learned man.) About 300,000 of the 2,688,528 were two years' men whose time expired about May 1863, and were discharged and went home, then there was a good guests. If the democracy are so afraid many thousands of the 100 days' men who were discharged in the fall of '84

Many thousands more who were home on furlough because of sickne were put down on the official reports as deserters or missing in action.

Estimating those who died while or furlough and the 100 days' men pre-viously discharged at 200,000, and it gives a grand total of 1,011,435 disabled or discharged up to the winter of '64 and '65, which taken' from the 2,688,533 would leave 1,677,970, in the spring of 65 to be accounted.
